Tucson Spring Break Mission Trip

Sponsored by State College Presbyterian Church and Westminster Presby Fellowship

Experiencing Grace for all Humanity

Last year, SCPC's Associate Pastor, Joel and his college-age son, Clay, spent a week in Tucson and the deserts surrounding this city. One of the significant experiences they shared was being able to worship with and learn from Southside Presbyterian Church.

We are fortunate to have a connection with this mission congregation and will enjoy the hospitality they offer us. In addition to worship and sleeping in their church, we will volunteer in their homeless ministry during the week.

We will be volunteering in a variety of organizations that meet the needs of a variety of populations, including immigrant, poor, and homeless in Tucson. And, we will connect with brothers & sisters who live in Tucson. Join us for this meaningful southwestern adventure as we respond to God's call to care for all who need

Arizona's second largest city

Tucson (TOO-sahn) is a growing metropolis of 1,000,000, half of these people located within the city. The city's geography is a postcard image of cactus forests, rolling hills and awe-inspiring mountains.

Tucson lies in the borderland, a region that blends the cultures of the United States and Mexico, and has a long history of settlement by ancient Native American peoples, Spanish explorers and Anglo frontiersmen.

The weather is mild nearly all the time, just right for Spring Break!

How will we travel?

We plan to depart on Saturday from State College, driving in vans to the airport. We will fly to Tucson and use a rental van all week.

What is our lodging like?

Lodging and meals will be at Southside Presby Church. We will need to take our own bedding, pillows and towels. There are restrooms and showers. A kitchen facility is provided. And, we'll be eating out a few times—experiencing the local and ethnic cuisines of this southwest Culture.
