

WPF

Diana Malcom, Associate In Ministry, is the staff person who coordinates College-Age Ministries (CAM) at the State College Presbyterian Church.

E-mail her at dmalcom@scpresby.org if you have questions.

Laura Essinger-Hileman is this year's WPF President. Feel free to contact her at lee5014@psu.edu for additional information.

---

and at SCPC ...

If you are interested in sharing your gift of music, there are a variety of opportunities, including Handbells, Choir, special events and more.

Contact Ned Wetherald, Director of Music Ministry (ned@scpresby.org).

Christian Education opportunities in childcare, teaching, and youth ministry are also available.

The one to help you with this is Deannine Shipman, Director of Education & Program (dshipman@scpresby.org).

WPF (Westminster Presbyterian Fellowship) is an organization that supports spiritual growth and education among students at Penn State. Though WPF is the College-Age ministry of The State College Presbyterian Church, we welcome anyone of the Penn State community who would like to join our community of faith.

We are a reformed and continually reforming Christian organization; an inclusive body that offers all participants an opportunity to share in the compassion and joy of the Christ's presence.

WPF and SCPC — Come get to know us and enjoy growing in faith!

Westminster Presbyterian Fellowship

The College–Age Ministry of
State College

Presbyterian Church

132 West Beaver Avenue

State College, PA 16801

814-238-2422

www.scpresby.org

(link to “programs”, then “College-Age Ministries”)

Check out the SCPC website at www.scpresby.org (look for the link to “Programs” then “College-Age Ministries”) for listings of special events, lectures and worship at the Church and Spiritual Center!!

SPECIAL OFFERINGS

ADOPT-A-STUDENT

Adopt—A—Student ministry at SCPC connects students with a family who will provide some good off-campus fellowship, family contact, good food and a variety of other possibilities for those desiring a family to care for them. Contact us to learn how to get yourself “adopted”.

VOCATIONAL DISCERNMENT

College is full of opportunities to discern and think about who you are and what you want to do with your degree, your gifts, your life! If you'd like to spend some time considering all of that contact dmalcom@scpresby.org for more information.

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

THURSDAY DINNER & FELLOWSHIP (ALSO KNOWN AS AGAPÉ)

Where students gather to celebrate our faith through humor, song, prayer, teaching and socializing.

Thursdays

6:00—8:00 p.m.

Fireside Room (lower level)

Dinner served at 6 p.m.—(free food!)

LUNCH AT REDIFER

Tuesdays

12:15—1:30 p.m.

Redifer Commons (South Halls-PSU)

MIDWEEK TAIZÉ SERVICE

A community worship service on Wednesday evenings in the Taizé style (informal and meditative, using simple songs to help us remember who and whose we are). Learn more about Taizé @ www.scpresby.org/worship/taize.htm

Wednesday Evenings

5:00—5:45 p.m.

Martin Room (main level)

Look for our “College-Age Ministries” link at the SCPC website! www.scpresby.org (through the “programs” link.)

WPF offers a number of programs for college-age folks at State College Presbyterian Church, on the corner of Beaver Ave. & Fraser St.

SUNDAYS

WORSHIP @ SCPC

Sunday mornings there are two worship services at 9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

SUNDAY COFFEE & CONVERSATION

Join other PSU folks between SCPC service for coffee & conversation

Sunday Mornings

10:15—11:00 a.m.

Social Hall

GRAD/YOUNG ADULT LUNCHEONS

Monthly luncheons are held for graduate-age students or young adults who feel/are older than college — following the 11:15 a.m. Worship Service. This is a time of fellowship and good food. An informal study and discussion follows the meal. Dates are announced in the Sunday Bulletins.

Dates for Fall 2009:

9/20, 10/25, 11/15, 12/13