YOUNG ADULT COFFEE AND CONVERSATION

Are you a young adult looking to connect with some fellow church-going young adult folks for some conversations about faith, life, culture, etc.? Join us today between services at the back table of Webster's.

ADULT EDUCATION

"Handel's Messiah and the Bible"

Anne Ard and Marty Harbison continue their impressive series on the pertinent music of the Messiah, with an emphasis on the Bible-derived libretto. Included are short interludes of selected musical portions of this magnificent work. Emphasis is on the great ideas with the Bible and how they relate to each other, revealed in the birth, ministry, death, and the Easter Resurrection of Jesus. Ingrained in the Messiah is man's search for God, Truth, and the Divinity of Christ. We meet in Westminster Hall at 10:15 am.

"Adult Education Bible Study"

This Sunday we'll be studying the judgment of Israel through the prophet Amos, in order to understand exactly what angered God in the people's behavior—not so different from what we see today. Please read the book of Amos in preparation. Next week is Easter Sunday, and there will be no Adult Bible Study.

(9:00) Deannine Shipman (11:15) Diana Malcom
God our Creator, you have sent your son Jesus into our lives, even as you sent him into Jerusalem long ago. Like the crowd which cheered his entry into the city, yet stood silent at his cross, we confess that we have within us the potential for both faithfulness and betrayal. Forgive us when we should speak, yet are silent. Forgive us when our cries of "hosanna" fade away before the realities of everyday life. May we be faithful followers of Jesus, even to the cross. Amen.
